SKIN CANCER SCREENING CLINIC OFFERS OPPORTUNITY FOR EDUCATION AND EARLY DETECTION

LEONARDTOWN, MD (September 11, 2006) – St. Mary's County Health Department is holding a skin cancer screening clinic Saturday, Sept. 30 from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m. The free clinic will be held at the health department, 21580 Peabody St., in Leonardtown. Annie Verghese, MD, Carl Ling, MD, and Angela Borger, ND, CRNP, DNC, will examine patients' skin and make referrals or recommend biopsies for further diagnosis, if needed. Staff from the health department's Wellness and Health Promotion Program will also be on hand to provide information about, skin cancer risk factors, skin cancer prevention and sun safety. Participants must have an appointment to be screened. For more information, or to schedule an appointment, please call 301-475-4356.
