HEALTH ALERT

CODE RED MESSAGE FOR WILDWOOD RESIDENTS

Cat specimen tests positive for rabies

St. Mary's County Health Department confirms that a cat, captured in the Wildewood community last weekend, has tested positive for rabies. To date, it is reported that two people were attacked by this rabid cat. Any other community members that may have been bitten or scratched by a cat in this vicinity are asked to call St. Mary's County Sheriff's Office at 301-475-8008.

For more information or questions about this health alert call St. Mary's County Health Department at 301-475-4330.
