

MACS TeleECHO™ Clinics

Providing collaborative medical education through web-based didactic presentations and case-based learning

Join us every 3rd Wednesday of the month from 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm for presentations and discussions with Drs. Eric Weintraub, Christopher Welsh, Devang Gandhi, and Michael Fingerhood, and Bethany Dipaula, PharmD.

Register here: <https://bit.ly/2SA9Jjb>

Who Should Participate?

- Primary care and specialty prescribers
- Pharmacists
- Counselors and other members of your care team

Benefits

- Monthly case-based clinical discussion
- Improve confidence with managing patients with substance use disorders
- Free CME and CEU credit available

2020 Curriculum

March 18	Intro to ECHO
April 15	Initiation of buprenorphine
May 20	Using the right words: appropriate language in relation to substance use
June 17	Helping the patient with opioid use disorder in your office – Practice protocols
July 15	Using motivation enhancement techniques to engage the reluctant patient
August 19	Making sense of drug tests
September 16	Managing pain in the patient with a substance use disorder
October 21	Managing patients with co-occurring mental health and substance use disorder
November 18	Managing the pregnant patient with a substance use disorder

MACS
Maryland Addiction Consultation Service

For registration and program details:

1-855-337-MACS (6227) • macs.echo@som.umaryland.edu • www.marylandMACS.org